You're probably familiar with the event called Orientation, but Orientation is more than a moment in time, it is the process of adjusting to University. You will have an opportunity to meet your teachers (academics), supporting staff and fellow students, and discover your campus. You can organize your student ID card, get timetable support and collect your Student Kit.

Following your Orientation session, you can take a campus tour with one of our Staff representative, to orientate you to services, facilities and important locations on your campus such as Department Building, Labs, Cafeteria. Be sure to also visit our state-of-the-art libraries to familiarize yourself with all the exciting services and assistance available there.
